

Gary Nagel

Chairman, National Christian Foundation

Wealth Advisor

Wealth Management Group

Gary Nagel is a wealth advisor with Wealth Management Group of Kansas City. He focuses on providing wealth management solutions to a select group of successful individuals and families in the Midwest. Together with his partners, he helps affluent clients address their concerns: enhancing and protecting their wealth, mitigating taxes, efficient transfer of their wealth to heirs, and developing strategic charitable giving solutions.

Gary founded Wealth Management Group in 1993 and now serves clients who have entrusted him to manage their wealth. He uses a consultative process to gain a detailed understanding of his clients' deepest values and goals. He then employs customized recommendations designed to address each client's unique needs and goals beyond simply investments.

Successful individuals and families work with Gary to:

- Develop and implement a coordinated wealth management plan to help them reach their financial dreams.
- Make informed decisions in today's uncertain political, economic, and social environment.

Gary is active in the Midwest financial advisor community. He is involved with and serves as chairman on the board of National Christian Foundation/Heartland spreading the message of generosity; assisting individuals and families in giving of their time, talents and financial resources. He has been elected to serve as vice chairman on the investment committee of Wycliffe Bible Translators and RIA Charitable Investment, Inc of Wycliffe Bible Translators. Gary is also a U.S. board member of SAT 7, a satellite ministry to the far East and North Africa. Gary is one of the founders of Crossfirst Bank and serves on the board of directors. He also serves as treasurer of the Tuscany Reserve Condominiums Association. He lives in Overland Park with his wife, Judy, and enjoys spending time with his son, James, his wife, Lucy, and their three children. They enjoy being a part of Colonial Presbyterian Church.
